PENTECOST – 20th May 2018

TODAY'S READINGS:

O Comforter, draw near, within my heart appear....

Today's feast offers us real hope. The Holy Spirit - the life-giver - filled the Apostles with life, with courage and renewed their trust in God. The doors of the Upper Room were opened, and the mission of the Church began. The Holy Spirit's gifts freed the Apostles to go out into the world to share with all people the wonder of Jesus Christ. We too can unlock the doors that trap us. We can do so because we are loved and graced by God. Let us not allow ourselves to be trapped, rather, let us, with renewed faith, call on the Holy Spirit to free us from whatever it is that may constrain us. It is with His help that we can live the fullness of life, in the fullness of faith and so continue to share the wonder of the Gospel with all peoples.

... And kindle it, Your holy flame bestowing!

EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS - ADOREMUS:

We have some members of the parish going to this in September, but each of us could celebrate it in our own way. One way would be greater use of the Oratory which is available for personal adoration of the Blessed Sacrament all through the week. (See me or one of the Deacons for the entrance code.)

On Thursday 24th May we will be holding the first of a series of meetings on the Eucharist, based on the course written by Cardinal Vincent Nicholls. These will be in the parish centre each Thursday at 7.30pm. All welcome to come along.
