CHRIST THE KING: 25th November 2018

TODAY'S READINGS:

Lord of life... King of love on Calvary...

At the end of each day as we examine our consciences and ask God for mercy for our mistakes, sins and omissions of the day we must ask ourselves; have I borne witness to the truth today? It is too easy to count up the failings and lies of others - not so easy to count our own - after all, our excuses have been well rehearsed over the years! But when we come to recognise the times we have failed and bring them to Our Lord, we experience real freedom in Him. When we have the courage to live as He called us to live, we become people of integrity, people of the Truth. He is our King, our peace; He frees us from sin, and from lies. He gives us His truth which sets us free. Today is the last Sunday of the Church's year and she uses Jesus' own words to sum up His mission on earth: I was born for this, I came into the world for this: to bear witness to the truth and all who are on the side of truth listen to my voice.

...Help us to listen, and bear witness to, Your truth every day!

LIVE SIMPLY – This is a programme to help us live as sustainably as possible as a parish following the Pope's call in his letter 'Laudato Si.' The areas we will look at are how we use and conserve our resources including energy use, how we reach out to others, and how we support those in need here and abroad. Much of this we do already, but there is always room for improvement and we often need help to make this a way of life. Patrick Gardner from Cafod will be here to speak to us on Sunday 25th at Mass.

We will need a small band of people to help with this! Thank you.
